

Safe Jobs for Youth Month, 2017

Video Contest – FAQs

What should my video be about?

Your video should contain content from one of the 6 video voiceovers on our YouTube playlist. These voiceovers go over your basic rights, responsibilities, and resources as a worker. Specific video topics and titles include:

1. Every Job Has Hazards
2. Hazards Can Be Addressed
3. Laws Protect All Workers on the Job
4. What If You Are Injured?
5. How to Problem-solve and Get Help

How should I make my video?

- Express yourself
- Speak clearly - we want your message to be understood by all.
- Get your friends involved for more than one voice.
- Use humor, puns, and clever twists of phrasing. Be witty!
- Use music.

How can I win this contest?

All submittals will be evaluated on the judging following criteria:

- Impact - a transferable safety message
- Clearly defined message
- Creativity
- Originality
- Youth appeal
- Overall production values / Technical competence
- Video and audio quality
- Clarity of information
- Presentation effectiveness

We are looking for innovative, creative, and original submissions that provide a youth perspective on workplace safety, rights and responsibilities.
