Introducing the Safe Jobs for Youth Month Resource Kit

Every spring we kick off the teen summer job season by declaring May as “Safe Jobs for Youth Month”. Our goal with this Resource Kit is to help teachers and other youth educators by providing some fun and informative teaching materials. Many young people will be entering the workforce for the very first time during summer break, and there’s a good chance no one has told them about their job rights and responsibilities, or how to stay safe at work.

The Resource Kit contains a variety of tools to help you educate your students about staying safe on the job includes:

- Safe Jobs 4 Youth Educational Activities Guide
- Are You a Working Teen? fact sheets for teens (app version too)
- Winning Student-made Poster
- Suggestions for community service projects for your students.

Help spread the word!

The entire Resource Kit is free and downloadable from our website ~ or if you’d like, we can mail you a paper copy and/or any of our youth-created award winning Safe Jobs for Youth Month posters. Call 510-643-8483, or email joselyn@berkeley.edu to request these materials. Please turn in the evaluation questionnaire form, at the end of this packet, for your free factsheets!
