

UC Berkeley LOHP, UCLA LOSH, and The California Commission on Health and Safety & Worker's Compensation (CHSWC) present

The 2024 Young Worker Leadership Academy

February 15 - February 17, 2024
UC Berkeley

The Young Worker Leadership Academy (YWLA) is an all-expense paid, 3-day leadership training for teens on workplace safety, rights, and responsibilities. Held at UC Berkeley, YWLA's mission is to build youth leaders and advocates for safe workplaces. After the academy, participants will design a project with their team to promote safe jobs for youth in May 2024 within their community.

Why should I apply?

- Learn about issues affecting working teens and how you can take action!
- Make a difference through your team's community project and earn a $100 stipend!
- Meet other teens passionate about advocacy, youth empowerment, and worker's rights!

How do I apply?

- Form a 4 person team (ages 14-18) and an adult advisor
- Apply on our website by December 1, 2023

The Young Worker Leadership Academy (YWLA) is part of the Worker Occupational Safety and Health Training and Education Program (WOSHTEP). WOSHTEP is administered by the California Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation in the Department of Industrial Relations through interagency agreements with the Labor Occupational Health Program at UC Berkeley, the Western Center for Agricultural Health and Safety at UC Davis, and the Labor Occupational Health and Safety Program at UCLA. The YWLA is also supported by the California Partnership for Young Worker Health and Safety.
